Internal Examination Policy

2018 - 19

Introduction

The examinations play an important role in deciding academic performance and future career choice of the students. In the current scenario to face competitive forces, ever-changing technology and altering needs of industry and service sector, there is a need to inculcate required skills and decision making capacities amongst the students. Hence, internal examination policy aims at covering different types of assessment to assess various abilities of the students such as application and presentation skills, analysis, evaluation, etc.

In SNTD Women's University there is semester pattern of examination. During one semester for each subject there is internal examination of 25 marks and semester end examination of 75 marks. As per the SNTD Women's University circular Exam 2009/2009-2010/1849 dated 30th November 2009 the student must get separate passing marks in internal (minimum 9 marks out of 25) and external examination (minimum 26 marks out of 75). Student must get minimum 9 marks in internal examination to be eligible to appear for semester end examination.

It is the responsibility of teachers and students to read, understand and to help in effective implementation of this policy.

Goals of policy

- To ensure efficient and transparent conduct of internal examinations in the best interest of students.
- To provide clear guidelines to students and teaching faculty regarding internal examinations.
