Introduction

About the University

The SNTD Women's University was established in 1916 by Bharatratna Maharshi Dhondo Keshav Karve and generously supported by Sir Vittaladas Thackersey. It is the first of its kind in India, imparting education exclusively to women, to suit their aspirations in the fast changing world. It got a statutory recognition in 1951 and became one of the statutory Universities in Maharashtra with national jurisdiction. It has been striving for upliftment, betterment and empowerment of women from all social strata throughout Maharashtra and Gujarat through comprehensive and all round progress in education. In 2015, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) have accredited SNTD Women's University in the second cycle with 'A' grade.

About the College

SNTD Arts and Commerce College for Women, is a constituent college of the SNTD Women's University. It is the first and the premier college of this University, carrying the glory and heritage of the renowned university, situated at Maharshi Karve Vidya Vihar, Karve Road, Pune. This college has been offering various courses in Arts and Commerce right from junior college (XI, XII) to graduation. The college also offers degree programmes such as B.V.A., B.C.A. To cope up with the changing demands of the job market, the College has introduced a new programme B.A.F. from the academic year 2014-15. Qualified and experienced teaching faculty, personal attention to the students, up to date and challenging syllabus, various co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, hostel facilities, well equipped library, sports facilities are some of the special features of this College. In 2021, the College, in the third cycle, has secured 'B+' grade (CGPA 2.70) in the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) accreditation.
