Report
Workshop on Projective Techniques

Psychological testing is one of the key aspects in the subject of Psychology. At the undergraduate level in the second year students study the course on Psychological testing and Assessment. Alongwith paper and pencil tests, performance tests, the projective tests are also important. To make students understand the concept of projective techniques and its's type a workshop was organized for the students on 06.03.2024.

Eminent Psychologist and Former Head of Department of Psychology of University of Mumbai Dr. C.G. Deshpande visited the department. Dr. Deshpande conducted a workshop on projective techniques for the students.

The projective techniques and its importance in Psychological testing and assessment was elaborated by Dr. Deshpande. He also demonstrated and gave hands-on training to the students regarding Thematic Apperception Test (one of the famous projective test).

Total 38 students attended the workshop.

It was a knowledge enhancement workshop for the students.
