

Geography
B.A. Part III
Semester - VI
Paper DC XIII (646307) Industrial Geography

Objectives :-

- 1) To introduce the nature, development and significance of manufacturing and its Links with the world economy.
- 2) To understand the location of major manufacturing activities with the support of various industrial location theories and models.
- 3) To discuss problem and impact of manufacturing industries with respect to relocation, environmental pollution and occupational health and industrial hazards.
- 4) To acquaint students with scope, content and theoretical framework relating transport routes, hierarchies, accessibility (Physical & Economical)

Credit : 4

Marks : 100

Periods : 60

SR.NO	TOPIC	SUB. TOPIC	PERIODS	MARKS
1	Introduction	A) Meaning & Definition of Industrial Geography B) Nature & Scope of Industrial Geography C) Factors affecting the Location of Industry	10	20
2	Importance Industries	A) Iron & steel industries: U.S.A., Russia, Germany, Great Britain & India B) Cotton Textile Industries : U.K., Japan and India C) Sugar industries: All Important Countries D) Ship Building Industries: All Important Countries E) Information Technology Industry	20	30
3	Theories of Industrial Location	A) Weber's "Industrial Location Theory" B) Lossch's theory of Industrial Location C) Isard's Space Economy - 1956	15	25
4	Major Industrial Regions in the World	A) Middle East Regions in North America B) Eastern Europe and Russian Industrial Region C) Western and Middle European Industrial Region D) South and Eastern Asia Industrial Region	15	25

References:-

- 1) Nagi B. S. (2002) : Geography of Resources, Kedar Nath Ram Nath, Publication Meerut. U.P.
- 2) Das, Gupta & Kapoor (2002) : Economics & Commercial Geography : Kedar Nath Ram
- 3) Hemlata Joshi (1990) : Industrial Geography of India, Rawat Publication, Jaipur
- 4) Hodder B. D. (1982) : Economic Geography, Mathuen & Co. London.
- 5) Husain Majid (2000) : Industrial Geography, Rawat Publication, Jaipur
- 6) Janki (1998) : Industrial Geography, Concept Publication, New Delhi.
- 7) Nath, Publication Meerut. U. P.
- 8) Sharma T.C. & O. Continho (2002): Economic & commercial Geography publishing House, New Delhi.
- 9) Thomus : Geography of Economic Activity
- 10) Chaudhari A P (2011) : Industrial Geography (in Marathi) Prashant Publication, Jalgaon
- 11) Priti Mathur and Sarina Kalia (2005) : Fundamental of Industrial Geography Ritu Publication, Jaipur